

RESERVE BANK RAISES RATE OF REDISCOUNT

Board of Directors of Atlanta Bank Increases Charge From 3 1/2 to 4 Per Cent.

CHANGES ARE MADE IN BANK OFFICIALS

W. C. McLarin, of Jacksonville, Becomes Managing Director; Vardeman Takes His Place.

The board of directors of the Atlanta federal reserve bank Friday increased the rediscount rate from 3 1/2 per cent to 4 per cent. The increase is effective throughout the district today on all classes of paper of all maturities.

W. C. McLarin, Jr., for some time past cashier of the Jacksonville branch, was appointed managing director of that bank to succeed George De Saussure, who died recently.

George Vardeman, now connected with the Atlanta bank, was appointed cashier to succeed Mr. McLarin, in Jacksonville. Mr. Vardeman's appointment is to be effective as soon as he can finish pending business in his present position, Oscar Newton, chairman of the board of directors, said.

Following the meeting, Eugene R. Black, governor of the bank, declined to comment on the increase of the rediscount rate, saying that the bare announcement would be sufficient. Atlanta bankers in touch with the situation said that an increase was to be expected at this time of year, since the demand for money was on the increase. This demand was attributed largely to farmers buying supplies in preparation for planting summer crops.

FEDERAL RESERVE BOARD ANNOUNCES APPROVAL

Washington, February 10.—(AP)—The federal reserve board today announced approval of an increase of the rediscount rate of the Atlanta Federal Reserve bank from 3 1/2 to 4 per cent, effective tomorrow.

Wofford Oil Firm to Raise Price of Gas

Increase Will Effect More Uniform Price Through State, Company Says.

An increase of 3 cents a gallon on gasoline will be effective Monday at all service stations of the Wofford Oil company, Waco-Pen dealers, according to an announcement Friday by W. E. Brown, city sales manager.

"The increase will be made in an effort to get a uniform gas price in all cities in Georgia. At present time Atlanta is very much out of line with the prices prevailing in other Georgia cities," Mr. Brown said.

Mr. Brown declared that he was in receipt of information which led him to believe that other Atlanta gasoline dealers would also make the increase.

Among the other companies in Atlanta, only one, the Standard Oil company, was found contemplating the increase. Officials of this organization said that they would make an announcement of their plans today.

The Gulf Refining company reported that it had no instructions to increase the price of gasoline and would have to wait for them.

The Pan-American company's officials declared they were ignorant of the proposed increase, as did officials at the Texas Oil company and at the Reed Oil company.

Ten Killed In Blast As 20 Are Trapped In Gold Mine Fire

Day of Catastrophes Climaxed by Terrific Oil Explosion in Massachusetts; Hunt More Dead.

FOUR BODIES TAKEN FROM CANADA SHAFT

Rescuers Driven From Tunnel by Gas Fumes; Fate of Miners Still Unknown.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.

Yesterday was a day of catastrophe in widely separated sections of the country. Explosions in oil plants at Everett, Mass., caused the deaths of at least ten persons; a city block at Long Beach, Calif., was devastated after a refinery explosion and extensive piers of a Bayonne, N. J., oil company were swept by flames; a city block also was destroyed in a supposed incendiary blaze at Worcester, Mass.

Between 20 and 45 miners were trapped 550 feet below the surface in a gold mine at Timmins, Ont. Four bodies were recovered before rescue operations were halted by gas.

Both Norway and Sweden were swept by "a great tempest," twenty-five dead are reported in the vicinity of Oslo.

TEN WORKMEN KILLED IN OIL EXPLOSION

Everett, Mass., February 10.—(United News.)—Ten men were killed and twenty others injured in a terrific gasoline explosion which demolished a section of the Beacon Oil company's plant.

Handicapped by darkness, police and firemen were attempting to recover the bodies of three other workmen, believed to have been buried beneath a collapsed oil tank. Hospitals were caring for 34 men who were more or less seriously injured by the blast, which damaged nearby dwellings, shattered windows for miles around, and imperiled the lives of 300 oil workers.

Thirty Others Slightly Hurt. Nearly 30 additional victims, less dangerously hurt, were able to go home for treatment at the company's first-aid station.

Nine of the bodies recovered lay in Henderson's undertaking parlors, awaiting identification which in some cases was expected to be delayed because of the mangled condition of the victims.

Russo, a laborer, died at a hospital and the death of the third might be increased because of the seriousness of injuries of some of those who were injured.

Although an accurate count could not be made tonight, President R. B. Kahle, of the company, expressed the opinion that no additional bodies were expected to be recovered from the wreckage of the oil tank.

WOMAN ATTACKED IN OWN FRONT YARD AND ROBBED OF $22

Knocked down in the front yard of her home and held up at the point of a pistol Friday night, Mrs. Lida Carlton, of 817 Washington street, yielded a purse containing $22 to a well-dressed young white man who got off the trolley car behind her and followed her to her very doorstep, according to police reports.

Mrs. Carlton told Call Officers R. T. Ballard and E. L. Beddell that the young man alighted from the car just after she did and followed her down the street. As she entered her yard, she said, she was struck on the head and knocked to the ground. The robber flashed a revolver in her face and demanded the purse.

Miss Moore scored a sensational success in New York Tuesday night when she made her debut with the Metropolitan Opera company, and Grace Moore, the Tennessee girl who has just become star, to appear in "Carmen."

Lucresia Bori, one of the most popular sopranos in grand opera, will appear in two operas in Atlanta during the season here to be offered by the Metropolitan Opera company, and Grace Moore, the Tennessee girl who advanced to stardom Tuesday night, will appear in one opera, it was announced Friday by the Atlanta Music Festival association.

Miss Bori will sing the soprano role in "Pagliacci" Wednesday afternoon, April 25, and will sing "Mimi" in "La Boheme" Saturday night, M. S. Moore will sing the role of "Micaela" in "Carmen," Saturday afternoon.

This announcement was made to clear up some confusion caused by a previous statement, that Miss Bori would sing in "Carmen" Saturday afternoon and in "La Boheme" Saturday night. The association officials felt that it was asking too much of Miss Bori to have her sing in two operas the same day, hence she and Miss Moore exchanged roles.

Miss Moore scored a sensational success in New York Tuesday night when she made her debut with the Metropolitan. Among those present were many friends from Tennessee, including a large delegation from Jellico, her home town. Charles Howard Woodruff, Anniston; W. B. Leith, Auburn; Miss Viola Gaines, Mobile; Miss Helene Easley, Montgomery; A. M. Hays, Montgomery; and J. A. Bullock, Sr., Montgomery.

DEFENSE PLEA FOR NEW TRIAL MAY POSTPONE JUDGMENT WHEN SLAYER FACES JUDGE THIS MORNING.

Los Angeles, February 10.—(United News.)—Last-minute efforts of attorneys defending William Edward Hickman are expected to result in a postponement of judgment when the slayer of Marian Parker faces Judge J. J. Trabucco for sentence Saturday.

Jerome Walsh and Richard Cantillon, the youthful defense attorneys, concentrated their efforts today on preparing a motion for a new trial. They hope that this motion, based on purported errors by Judge Trabucco in his instructions to the jury, and on rulings during the course of the trial, will delay pronouncement of sentence until next Tuesday.

DEFENSE CONTINUES FIGHT.

If the motion is denied, however, Judge Trabucco may sentence Hickman, found by a jury to have been sane at the time of his crime, to death or to life imprisonment. The slayer's appearance is scheduled for 9:30 a. m., in the same courtroom where his trial was held.

The demand for a new trial is only the beginning of the legal battle to save Hickman from the gallows, Walsh said. An appeal to the state supreme court and possibly to the United States supreme court is contemplated, he said.

No high court ruling has yet been made the plea, "not guilty by reason of insanity," and the defense hopes to prove a sentence to death under it is unconstitutional.

Hickman is unconcerned. With the verdict that may mean his death still the subject of conversation throughout Los Angeles, he laughs and jokes with his jailers, apparently relieved after the nervous tension of the trial.

DEATH PENALTY EXPECTED.

Judge Trabucco, the jurist from California's frontier, would not indicate the nature of his sentence, but there was little doubt of anything but a hanging order.

Mrs. Eva Hickman and Alfred, the 21-year-old university student brother, are in seclusion, refusing to comment further on the verdict or Hickman's execution.

Walsh's assurance that Hickman would not hang for at least one year seemed to bring some solace to the mother, he said. She is near collapse, but does not weep.

The defense of Hickman is a test of California's new laws that have attracted the attention of every attorney and judge. When Hickman faces the court tomorrow he will have the city's most prominent legal men as an audience.

GUARD STANDS NEAR CELL.

Hickman cannot be hanged for 60 days, even if all appeals fail, under the statutes.

Throughout the day an alert deputy sheriff watched the killer in his cell. Hickman jeered at the precautionary measures, however, assuring his keepers that he would "die like a man."

"I won't commit suicide. I'll walk up those 13 steps without faltering," he boasted.

REWARDS WILL BE MADE BY COMMITTEE.

Los Angeles, February 10.—(United News.)—Rewards for the capture of William Edward Hickman will be allocated at a meeting of the citizens' reward committee next week, Mayor George Cryer, chairman, declared today.

More than $50,000 in reward money is being held in trust pending the decision of the committee. Chief of Detectives Herman Cline is to present a report on the claimants, Mayor Cryer said. A court decision will be necessary to establish validity of some of the claims, it was indicated.

Aviatrix Is Arrested

JAMES JOHNSTONE IN SERIOUS CONDITION

As Man Tries Suicide

James William Johnstone, Birmingham, Ala., business man, is in Piedmont hospital in a serious condition with a bullet wound in his left chest, following an attempted suicide Friday night in a downtown hotel in the presence of Miss Gladys Poole, young Atlanta aviatrix, of 97 Lakewood terrace and a Mr. Reynolds, whose initials were not learned by police.

Miss Poole was arrested on a charge of suspicion, pending a thorough investigation. Meanwhile, police and detectives are combing the city for Reynolds, who is said to be a local motor truck salesman, another man, said to be connected with a West End drug store and two young women, officers were told, had been in attendance at a "party" in Johnstone's room earlier in the day.

Patrolman W. G. Baldwin was told that Johnstone became despondent Friday about noon and his despondency increased during the afternoon. As members of the party were leaving his room, he is said to have remarked that he had only one hour and thirty-eight minutes to live.

At police station Miss Poole told Captain A. J. Holcomb, Patrolman Baldwin and Detectives H. W. Armstrong and J. M. Austin, that Johnstone had asked her to go to Birmingham with him, and when she refused he remarked that he had only a few minutes to live and then as she and "Reynolds" were leaving the room, he drew his pistol and fired.

Officer Baldwin stated that as he entered the room, Johnstone gave him a diamond ring and requested that it be given to a son, William Johnstone, should he ever be proved fatal. He also left a note addressed to Miss Poole, which the officer gave her without opening it.

POLITICS IS BANNED BY HAVANA ENVOYS

U. S. Leads 12 Nations in Rejecting Proposed Political Power for Pan- American Union.

Havana, February 10.—(United News.)—Twelve American republics today flatly rejected proposals which would give the Pan-American union political powers and made it an approach to an American league of nations.

Under articles adopted, the Pan-American union will continue to work for intellectual, cultural and economic cooperation, but today's action definitely steers the union away from political function.

U. S. Rejected Proposal.

The nations which rejected the proposals were the United States, Peru, Ecuador, Mexico, Argentina, Salvador, Nicaragua, Venezuela, Chile, Brazil, Haiti and the Dominican Republic.

Only Colombia, of Uruguay, and Olaya of Venezuela, ardently argued for an effective political organization of the Pan-American union. They were supported in the vote by Guatemala, Costa Rica, Paraguay and Cuba.

According to many delegates, acceptance of the Argentine declarations against a just custom, obstacles to be brought up soon would be an admission that such injustices exist, which all countries would naturally deny.

Other arguments advanced in substance were that it is contrary to the ideas of national sovereignty as all nations insist upon their freedom of action with reference to taxes; and that many countries must depend upon high customs duties for their revenues.

ARGENTINA CHANGES ENVOYS' INSTRUCTIONS.

Buenos Aires, February 10.—(AP)—It was learned tonight on what is considered the most reliable authority that Argentina will not insist on the demand of her delegation at the Pan-American conference at Havana that the question of economic factors be included in the preamble of the proposed Pan-American union convention.

New instructions were dispatched tonight to Dr. Pueyrredon, head of the Argentine delegation at Havana, who has brought about a deadlock in the Pan-American conference by his advocacy of the removal of tariff barriers among the American republics. The action of the foreign office followed upon a series of conversations with the American ambassador, Robert W. Bliss, and Foreign Minister Gallardo last yesterday.

JOHN D., JR., ACTS TO SAVE INDUSTRY STAINED BY PROBE

Oil Magnate To Appear Before Teapot Dome Investigators Today as Goodwill Envoy.

Washington, February 10.—(United News.)—Although John D. Rockefeller, Jr., is appearing before the senate Teapot Dome committee tomorrow under formal summons, he is actually coming in the role of an ambassador of good will bent on rescuing the oil industry from some of the stain smeared on it by the most notorious scandals in the history of the nation.

Some of the biggest figures in the oil industry have been involved in these scandals. The United States supreme court already has spoken in its most severe terms of the deals Sinclair and Doheny had with Albert B. Fall. It has been testified that Sinclair secretly gave Fall $233,000 in Liberty bonds after getting Teapot Dome. Sinclair is under jail sentence for contempt of the senate in refusing to testify.

O'Neil Fled From U. S.

James E. O'Neil, formerly head of the Prairie Oil and Gas and one of the ring leaders in the Continental deal, left the country after taking $800,000 in profits through that secret deal and later made restitution to his company when he thought he was going to die. He and Harry M. Blackmer, also a ring leader in the deal, have remained in Europe since, fearing to come back to testify in the oil cases.

Today the Teapot Dome committee learned that O'Neil's son, Wayne O'Neil, who was ruler of the bonds which his father later ordered turned over to his company, left the country last fall and cannot be brought back to testify about his father's conduct.

Robert W. Stewart, head of the Standard Oil of Indiana, which is controlled by Rockefeller holdings, has been called to testify.

STATE DEMOCRATS WILL MEET TODAY

Executive Committee Will Make Plans for Selection of Delegates to Houston Convention.

Members of the state democratic executive committee will meet in Atlanta at 11 o'clock this morning at the Ansley hotel to form plans for the selection of delegates to the national democratic convention to be held at Houston, Texas, June 20.

Three plans of selecting the delegates have been suggested to the committee. Under the first plan, suggested by Governor L. G. Hardman, a state-wide convention would be called. The delegates to this convention would be selected by the county executive committees and the county delegates would caucus by congressional districts to make selections for delegates to the national convention.

Under a second plan, suggested by the Cobb county executive committee, the state committee itself would be empowered to select the delegates to the national convention and to draft rules of instruction.

The third plan was suggested by Judge J. J. Flint, of Spalding, prominent democratic leader, who declared that a presidential primary should be held, even if United States Senator Walter F. George is the sole candidate for the presidential nomination. He said the delegates to the national convention could be selected under this plan by a direct vote of the people.

In suggesting a state convention, Governor Hardman announced that he is strongly opposed to the selection of the delegates to the Houston convention by the state committee. He said he favored such selection by the people and said a convention would be the logical plan for giving the people the right to select these delegates.

The Cobb county plan was formed at a meeting of the democratic executive committee of that county held recently.

It is virtually certain that Judge Walter F. George will be the choice of the Georgia delegation, as he is endorsed for the place by the state committee and he has had no opposition. Judge Flint said Senator George could run in a state-wide presidential primary and that in this primary the delegates to the national convention should be selected by direct vote of the people.

"I am opposed to the selection of the delegation by the state committee and have heard hundreds of leading democrats say that there will be a political revolution in this state if the committee attempts to take any such action," he said.

U. S. IMMIGRATION INSPECTOR KILLED BY TWO MEXICANS

El Centro, Calif., February 10.—(United News.)—Two Mexicans, believed to have been without passports, late today murdered U. S. Immigration Inspector Norman G. Ross, 27, after their arrest near Kane Springs. The Mexicans then held up a rancher, took his gun and escaped.

The immigration service barracks here, where Ross lived, were emptied tonight as the full force joined peace officers searching for the slayers.

OHIO REPUBLICAN FORCES CHANGE IN RESOLUTION

La Follette Withdraws Paragraph Commending "Observance of Precedent by President."

THIRD TERM HIT AS "UNPATRIOTIC"

Unsuccessful Effort Is Made To Amend Resolution Making It Apply Only to 'Election Terms.'

Washington, February 10.—(AP)—The senate went on record today, 56 to 26, in favor of the retirement of presidents "after their second terms."

By this vote the resolution of Senator La Follette, republican, Wisconsin, declaring this precedent established by Washington and other presidents had become "a part of our republican system of government" was approved after days of debate revolving about its application to President Coolidge.

One Paragraph Withdrawn

The second paragraph of the resolution commending "the observance of this precedent by the president" was withdrawn by Senator La Follette after Senator Fess, republican, Ohio, had moved to strike it out.

However, an attempt by Senator Fess to word the resolution to apply only to second "election" terms was overwhelmingly rejected, 73 to 5. This move which would obviously exempt President Coolidge from the scope of resolution was supported only by Senators Bingham and McLean, Connecticut; Waterman, Colorado, and Fess and Willis, Ohio republicans.

Administration republicans had contended that the paragraph reflected upon Coolidge, who, they contended, might accept "in good faith" the republican nomination. Some democrats had assailed the paragraph as not excepting "in good faith" the announcement of the president that he did not choose to run.

La Follette Not Satisfied. Senator La Follette, who said he proposed his resolution because of Charles D. Hilles, of New York, "and other powerful factors in the party" were seeking to draft the president, withdrew his amendment.

G. O. P. SENATORS TO PREPARE NEW FARM AID BILL

Washington, February 10.—(United News.)—A conference of republican senators today agreed unanimously to formulate a farm relief plan and directed the steering committee to prepare a program of legislation to be introduced.

Simultaneously the senate agricultural committee agreed unanimously to dispose with public hearings on farm relief and planned to start work up drafting a bill for submission to the senate.

NEW GEORGIA TECH UNIT AUTHORIZED; TO COST $121,669

Another unit of the Georgia School of Technology plant was authorized Friday when it was announced that a building permit amounting to $121,669 was secured from the city building inspector Thursday afternoon. The new unit will be a one-story reinforced concrete structure with a tower, to be erected at 651 Techwood drive, N. W. It will be used as a dining hall and is expected to be completed before the September term of school opens.

George A. Clayton company, of Atlanta, will construct the building, it was announced.

All in Readiness For Arrival Today Of Glass House Girl

Arriving this morning from Hollywood, where she is prominent as a Paramount actress, Miss Edna Kirby, known all over the country as "the lady of the glass house," will take up her residence in the display windows of the M. Rich & Bros. company to live there an entire week.

Miss Kirby's arrival and official welcome from Major Ragdale at the city hall at 10:30 o'clock this morning will be filmed by movie cameramen, and the pictures will be shown all next week on the screen of the Georgia theater, where Miss Kirby will make two personal appearances daily.

Installed in her "apartment unique" in the Rich windows, Miss Kirby for a week will live the normal life of an American housewife. An elaborate and interesting program of entertainment, as well as a number of shopping tours through the various Rich departments, has been arranged for her.

BRAND NEW PATROL AWAITS VIOLATORS OF ATLANTA LAWS

A free ride in a brand new patrol awaits law violators in Atlanta in the next few days, in accordance with action of the purchasing committee Friday afternoon.

That body voted to buy a flashy new patrol wagon, nine new motorcycles, a dozen new two-door sedans, and 22 new sirens.

In addition a carload of lead for use of the waterworks department will be purchased.

Total purchases will cost approximately $20,000.

Rising Mercury Bringing Clouds Toward City

Slowly rising temperatures will cause today's fair skies to turn cloudy toward nightfall, C. F. von Herrmann, United States meteorologist, said Friday.

The skies are due for a cloudiness, Mr. von Herrmann said that he was unable to determine whether or not Atlanta will receive rain within the next few days, as the weather conditions are not definite enough for a venture at a prediction for Sunday or Monday.

RABBITS' SQUEALS BRING BURGLARS TERMS IN PRISON

Judge E. D. Thomas gave J. C. Monroe eight years when he admitted two weeks ago to stealing rabbits and guinea pigs, while a jury which Friday afternoon convicted T. H. Sims as an accomplice let him off with five.

It was the lively nature of their loot which led to the arrest of Monroe and Sims last November, according to testimony in Fulton superior court.

This happened when policemen, cruising the vicinity of a reported burglary, accosted the pair. "There pockets bulged, rustled and squeaked, witnesses averred."

In court Friday Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Bullock, of 354 Glen Iris drive, swore their home had been looted of miscellaneous clothing and jewelry and their yard of pets depleted.

Monroe pleaded guilty on a burglary charge and received an 8 to 12-year sentence by Judge E. D. Thomas, who also sentenced Sims Friday on the Mayflower, taking with him Senators Glass and Swanson and Representative Moore, whose district Mr. Coolidge will visit.

The other guests will be C. H. Brown, Simpson, the president's former secretary, and former Representative Carlin, both of Virginia.

COOLIDGE VISIT TO ALEXANDRIA PLANNED IN FULL

Washington, February 10.—(AP)—Plans have been completed for the trip of President Coolidge to Alexandria, Va., on February 22 to participate in a Washington's birthday celebration.

A part of the festivities will be a reception given by Governor and Mrs. Byrd, which the president and Mrs. Coolidge if she is able, will attend. The president will make the short trip from Washington to Alexandria on the Mayflower, taking with him Senators Glass and Swanson and Representative Moore, whose district Mr. Coolidge will visit.

The other guests will be C. H. Brown, Simpson, the president's former secretary, and former Representative Carlin, both of Virginia.

Noted Comedian Dead.

London, February 10.—(AP)—Little Tich, diminutive comedian and one of the best-known players of the British variety stage, is dead.

TEACHERS PLEDGED CANDIDATES' AID

BY HERMAN D. HANCOCK.

A comparative lull in the storm of eloquence designed as vote getters in the county primary of March 7 was observed Friday with the only outstanding feature of the day being speeches by the quintet of prominent Atlantans seeking the two positions as Fulton county commissioners. The oratorical contest was held in the auditorium of Fulton county high school before approximately 400 teachers and was presided over by W. F. Dykes, Principal of Fulton High school.

Captain George M. Hope, incumbent, the first to speak, declared teachers of the Fulton county system should be paid salaries commensurate with those of the Atlanta school system, and promised to use his influence towards that end.

Mr. Hope has been a member of the commission for the past six years, and is prominently connected in civic, fraternal, military and political circles. He said that he and other Atlantans had assisted Atlanta teachers in getting their salaries in the fall of 1927 by giving their personal indorsements to a note which the Atlanta Clearing House association honored.

Legal Barriers Blocked Measure.

Walter B. Stewart at present chairman of the commission, was the next aspirant to appear. He stated that legal barriers have prevented the commission from being as liberal with the Fulton county school system and its teachers as the commission wished to be, and suggested that these barriers be removed. He pledged his efforts in helping establish a "living wage scale" for the teachers.

Mr. Stewart was elected to the commission to fill the unexpired term of Mayor I. N. Ragdale, when the latter quit that post to accept the chair as Atlanta's chief executive.

Dr. A. H. Cochran, former councilman and alderman from the second ward and ex-mayor pro tem. of Atlanta, declared the schools are his hobby and have been since he was a member of general council. He stated that his training as a member of the finance committee of the Atlanta city council for four years has equipped him to administer county funds judiciously.

He also is a leading figure in fraternal, civic and political circles, and at the present time is a resident of the seventh ward.

Urges Better Pay.

Sam D. Hewlett and Ed Inman, the other two aspirants in the five-cornered race for the commission, also took the floor and made bids for support of the instructors.

"There is no more important business of the government than proper training of its youth to become useful, law-abiding citizens," Mr. Hewlett stated. "I shall deem it a privilege to assist in any possible way in getting the teachers of the system a salary schedule on a parity with other teachers of the state."

"I feel that all employees of the county should be paid salaries commensurate with the work they do, and that teachers are the most underpaid in comparison with other employees," Mr. Inman said. "Something should be done to remedy this condition, and I shall be pleased and deem it a pleasure to assist if I am elected a member of the board."

ANDREWS DENIES ATTACK ON LINDY

Boston, February 10.—(United News.)—Rear Admiral Philip D. Andrews, commanding officer of the Boston naval district, received an "inspiration" from Secretary of the Navy Wilbur or any one else for anything he said in connection with the transatlantic flight, during a recent speech here, he said tonight.

His statement followed upon a demand by Representative McChesney in the house of representatives today for an explanation from Secretary Wilbur as to the inspiration for the naval officer's remarks.

Admiral Andrews declared the congressman's demands evidently were due to misinformation as to Andrews' attitude toward naval aviation and toward Lindbergh and his flight.

LINDBERGH RECEIVES KEYS TO HAVANA

Havana, February 10.—(United News.)—Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh predicted today upon receiving the key to the city from Mayor Gomez, that all American republics will be linked by aviation routes in the near future.

Lindbergh said it was his wish that his trip through Latin America would have the effect of uniting the Americas by air. About 20,000 persons heard him speak in Central Park, where Gomez made his presentation.

drew the paragraph but, he said, "it was apparent from statements by his friends here that the president has not foreseen his re-nomination."

"I had added that paragraph," La Follette explained, "in all sincerity because I thought President Coolidge, by his statements, had definitely eliminated himself from the race and was observing this tradition."

As adopted the resolution, which does not call for house concurrence, reads:

"Resolved, that it is the sense of the senate that the precedent established by Washington and other presidents of the United States in retiring from the presidential office after their second term, has become, by universal concurrence, a part of our republican system of government, and that any departure from this time-honored cus-

DRY ENFORCEMENT PLEGGED BY WILLIS

Washington, February 10.—(AP)—Pledging of the republican party and its presidential candidates to a vigorous, faithful and effective enforcement of the prohibition laws is favored by Senator Willis, of Ohio, who recently tossed his big black hat into the presidential ring.

His views were outlined in a letter sent tonight to Senator Borah, republican, Idaho, in reply to a questionnaire which the latter addressed to him yesterday. Besides declaring for a prohibition plank in the party platform, the Ohioan also declared that if nominated and elected he would "put forth every effort to see to it that the eighteenth amendment is observed, obeyed and respected and the laws enacted hereunder, enforced."

Favors Volstead Act

In reply to the third of the questions addressed to him, Willis said that he did not favor a program of legislation which would enable every state to determine for itself the alcoholic content of beverages.

"I do not favor the repeal of the Volstead act, nor do I favor repeal of the eighteenth amendment," Willis wrote in reply to the last question. "I believe the eighteenth amendment is here to stay and that citizens and officials would better put in their time how they may observe the law of their country and respect its constitution, rather than to give their efforts to plans whereby the law may be evaded and the constitution broken down."

Tom would be unwise, unpatriotic and fraught with peril to our free institutions."

Curtis Favored Resolution

Senator Curtis, of Kansas, the republican leader and an avowed candidate for the republican presidential nomination, voted with 17 other republicans, mostly from the west, the lone farmer-labor senator and 37 democrats in support of the resolution. Senator Gillett, republican, Massachusetts, was one of the group supporting the resolution, while Senator Walsh, democrat, of that state, voted against it. The three other democrats who voted against the resolution with the bloc of administration republicans were Blaine, of South Carolina; Ferris, of Michigan, and Randall, of Louisiana. Senators Watson, of Indiana, and Willis, of Ohio, other avowed republican candidates, both voted against the resolution.

Fess Proposal Defeated

Despite the overwhelming reverse met by Senator Fess in his attempt to apply the resolution only to second "elective" terms, Senator Bingham, republican, Connecticut, another of the administration group, proposed to make an exception to the third term rule in event of great national emergencies but this was voted down without even a roll-call.

As on previous days, debate centered today on President Coolidge. Senator Borah, republican, Idaho, took the view that the president had defied the constitution and that he was not from the race and there could be no "embarrassment."

PRESIDENT'S CANDIDATES SPLIT ON RESOLUTION

Washington, February 10.—(United News.)—Presidential candidates in the senate were lined up four to two in favor of the La Follette resolution against a third term.

Willis, of Ohio, and Watson, of Indiana, voted against it. Curtis, of Kansas, and Norris, of Nebraska, republicans, voted for the resolution. George, of Georgia, and Reed, of Missouri, democrats, were paired for the resolution and would have voted for it had they been permitted to. Under the "pair system" an absent senator arranges with some senator on the opposite side to refrain from voting so that the two votes cancel each other.

catr, will deliver addresses of welcome.

The replica of the statue will be presented to Georgia and Governor Hardman will make the acceptance speech. He will be followed by Judge Alex Stephens, who will express the appreciation of the Stephens family. Following him, five-minute talks will be made by the following: Attorney General George M. Nathan; John M. Graham, Mrs. Rebecca L. Felton, Judge Richard B. Russell, William H. Fleming, State Senator John L. Kelley, Senator Wright, William Schley Howell, and former Governor N. E. Harris.

Placing of Wreaths.

Two wreaths will then be placed on the replica, one from the citizens of Georgia and the other from the citizens of Crawfordsville, the home of Stephens.

"Dixie" will be played by the Georgia Tech band and the program will close with benediction by Dr. F. C. McConnell, pastor of the Druid Hills Baptist church.

Raleigh Drennon has sent out requests for open cars to participate in the parade, and a large number have responded.

Heading the parade will be commander of Georgia cavalry, Colonel J. O. Seaman and his staff. Following him will come Governor Hardman and his staff, former governors, Mayor Ragsdale, chamber of commerce officials and members of the city council, county commissioners, the Old Guard and Confederate veterans.

The Georgia Tech band will head the second division of the parade. Included in this division are the Governor's Horseguards, the American Legion, Spanish-American War Veterans, Georgia Tech military unit, Emory military unit, Georgia Military Academy, Georgia Military College, Marietta college, Gordon institute, Boy's High, Tech High, Griffin High school and Lucretia George institute.

The line of march will be: Peachtree to Forsyth to Hunter to Whitehall to Auburn to the auditorium.

At the luncheon preceding the parade the Junior League members will serve the boys, assisted by delegations from Washington seminary, North Avenue Presbyterian school and Woodward school.

Arrangements for Luncheon.

Arrangements have been made to provide 2,000 sandwiches of ham, lettuce, ham and pickles, 100 pounds of candy, 100 pounds of coffee with necessary cream and sugar, 100 pounds of pound cake, 2,000 French pastries, 2,000 servings of ice cream, 100 pounds of cheese and 15 gallons of pickles. Into the sandwiches will go 300 loaves of sandwich bread and 500 pounds of meat.

W. Bayne Gibson will be in charge of the reception committee at the auditorium. On the front seats of the auditorium will be the members of the Junior League, who will serve the luncheon. With them will be wives of members of the governor's staff. The Old Guard and the various military units will occupy the remainder of the arena. Students from the high schools and the junior high schools will occupy the dress circle and in the balcony will be seated pupils from the fifth and sixth grades grammar school.

The committee that has arranged the program includes, besides Dr. Quillian, Mrs. J. M. High, Mrs. Elizabeth Venable Mason, Mrs. Charles P. Byrd and Colonel J. C. Woodward.

TEN KILLED IN BLAST; BLAZE TRAPS MINERS

The vaporizing plant connected with the machine shop. With a deafening roar that was heard for miles, a tank containing 40,000 gallons of gasoline blew up.

Several workmen in the roadway alongside the machine shop were blown to pieces and nearly two score others were trapped in the building, which was immediately enveloped in flames.

Neighboring houses trembled as if an earthquake had occurred, hundreds rushed to the street to see giant tongues of flame licking the sky.

At first it appeared that despite the devastating blast, only one or two workmen had lost their lives. But as rescuers hunted through the debris, body after body, most of them horribly mangled, was removed.

Pitiful scenes followed the disaster as wives and mothers struggled to get inside the police lines to learn whether their loved ones were among the victims. Police were forced to keep anxious relatives outside the safety zones because of the possibility of another blast.

JURY TAMPERING DEFENSE BLOCKED IN COURT

Washington, February 10.—(AP)—An attempt by the defense in the criminal conspiracy proceedings against Harry F. Sinclair, William J. Burns and their associates, to prove the United States government had for years shadowed juries was blocked, at least temporarily today by government objections.

Coincident with this development it was disclosed that government counsel would ask to proceed against Sinclair alone in the event Albert B. Fall is unable to return to Washington for the retrial of the Teapot Dome criminal conspiracy case set for April 2. The former interior secretary and the wealthy oil operator and turfman were facing charges jointly when a mistrial, out of which the controversy charges sprang, was declared several months ago. Fall then went to his home in the southwest and the retrial was once postponed when the court was advised that it would endanger Fall's health to return here for trial during the winter weather.

ROCKEFELLER ARRIVES IN WASHINGTON

Washington, February 10.—(AP)—John D. Rockefeller, commanding figure in the Standard Oil interests, arrived here tonight from New York in response to a subpoena for his appearance tomorrow before the senate Teapot Dome committee, which is seeking to unravel the mystery of the Continental Trading Company of Canada.

Rescue operations were abandoned tonight when efforts to reach the imprisoned men, with the limited equipment on hand failed. It was decided to await the arrival of the mine rescue car being sent from Pennsylvania and expected at noon tomorrow.

AGGRESSIVE WARS BANNED BY LEAGUE

Geneva, Switzerland, February 10.—(AP)—Aggressive war must be outlawed, but was for legitimate defense in the application of the covenant of the League of Nations or in the execution of a league decision is justifiable, in the view of a committee of noted experts who today presented a report on the means of the promotion of international security.

The committee's recommendations have aroused special interest because of the American initiative looking toward the outlawing of war and the new treaty just signed between the United States and France. The report advocated negotiation of regional pacts of non-aggression among the nations in the same geographical area, but declared that if these pacts are to constitute elements in a general system of security they must be linked up with one another and bear a coherent relationship with the league covenant.

What is deemed to be of special interest, however, is the committee's opinion that international disputes are becoming more and more caught in the network of measures for the prevention of war and that there is constant improvement in the facilities of the league council to maintain peace "so that resort to war without responsibility for such a step being manifested to the whole world becomes increasingly difficult to imagine."

COAST GUARDS WIN VICTORY IN COURT

Miami, Fla., February 10.—(AP)—The federal court jury hearing the trial of three coast guardsmen for the murder of E. H. Jones was limited to a verdict of manslaughter or less, if Judge William B. Sheppard, in his charge, which probably will be delivered tomorrow, follows an announcement made today.

There also is the alternative of a directed verdict of not guilty, for part or all of the defendants. The court had not ruled on renewed motions for such a verdict when recess was taken today. In the course of argument on the motions for directed verdict Judge Sheppard told attorneys the evidence adduced showed none of the requisite elements of murder.

The coast guardsmen, H. P. Parry, Joseph Kaslow and M. E. Lowery, were indicted in state courts for killing Jones on the night of March 14, 1927, off Tahiti beach, in water coast guardsmen said they believed to be a rum chase.

her is the largest in its history, he said.

In his retiring address, Mr. West urged the chamber to increase its membership from the present 2,000 to 5,000, and pointed the way to greater prosperity and growth for Atlanta. He said that the chamber interprets the minds of the best people of the community and puts their wishes into force regardless of the "noisy minority."

In accepting the office of president, Mr. Dargan pledged his best efforts for an impartial administration, and said that he plans to coordinate activities that all Atlantans will become convinced that the chamber justifies their support.

During the dinner community singing was led by Arthur Falkenberg, the guests joining in the singing of "Sweet Adeline." "In the Good Old Summer Time," "America" and a number of other songs. Instrumental music was furnished by the Peckless Entertainers, directed by Louis Rittenbaum.

Leon S. Merrill Speaks at Meet Of Odd Fellows

Leon S. Merrill, of Orono, Maine, grand sire of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows and dean of the University of Maine, was principal speaker Friday night at a public meeting of Odd Fellows and Rebekahs at the First Christian church.

Mr. Merrill held several conferences with grand lodge officers, grand encampment officers and grand assembly Rebekahs Friday morning and afternoon at the Anselmy hotel.

Immediately after the Friday night meeting Mr. Merrill left the city for Birmingham, Ala., where he will be an honored guest at a similar meeting. He has visited 21 states and has been speaking to officers of the order in each of the states.

Among the other speakers on the program Friday night were Paul L. Lindsey, representative of the sovereign grand lodge; James A. Perry, chairman of the Georgia public service commission and past grand master of the order; James L. Mayson, city attorney, representing the city of Atlanta; Chief Justice Richard E. Russell, past grand master; M. L. Ledford, grand master of Georgia; Mrs. J. E. Bodenheimer, president of the Rebekah assembly of Georgia, and Mrs. Maud Hughes, past president of the Rebekah assembly.

WILLIAM SHEPPARD DIES AT RESIDENCE

William H. Sheppard, 55, prominent Georgian who only recently came to Atlanta, from Montgomery, Ala., died Friday at the residence, 18 Lombardy way, following a brief illness.

Mr. Sheppard was a native of Augusta, Ga., and had been prominently identified with the fertilizer industry in Georgia, Alabama and the Carolinas practically all his life.

In addition to his widow, he leaves a sister, Mrs. William C. Wardlaw, of Atlanta, and a brother, Samuel Sheppard, of Catelona, Calif.

Funeral services will be held Sunday afternoon in the Church of the Good Shepherd, Augusta, and burial will be in that city.

Following the opening verse, "America," the invocation was offered by the Rev. W. W. Menninger, pastor of All Saints' Episcopal church.

B. Graham West was chairman of the arrangement and reception committee for the meeting, with W. H. Butler serving as vice chairman. '3 INFECTED TEETH' HALT INDIANA TRIAL

Indianapolis, Ind., February 10.—(AP)—Three infected teeth prevented the formation of a jury today in the trial of Governor Eli Jackson. State and defense had agreed on the panel when George Ollar, Indianapolis business man, asked to be excused to visit a dentist. When he insisted that the work on his teeth could not be delayed, Judge Charles M. McCabe excused him. Everyone concerned was satisfied with the panel at the time and the judge was ready to swear the men into service when Ollar presented his plea. The three-day-old task of examining talesmen then was resumed, but efforts in the final minutes of the session were futile.

No Court Session Today.

There will be no session tomorrow, Judge McCabe changing his plans at the request of counsel.

Acting on information that Robert W. Lyons, of Richmond, who is expected to be one of the prosecution's principal witnesses, is ill in a hospital in Dayton, Ohio, Prosecutor William H. Henry began an investigation of the circumstances. An investigator for the department went to Dayton today. Efforts to find Lyons a witness previously had been unsuccessful, it was said.

STREET CAR FARE AT BALTIMORE HIKED ONE CENT

Baltimore, February 10.—(AP)—Street car fares were increased one cent in Baltimore by decision of the state public service commission, announced today. The new fares will go into effect after midnight Sunday.

Cash fares were increased from 8 to 9 cents by the order and tokens now sold two for 15 cents, will be sold three for 25 cents, under the new rates. An increase to 10 cents, asked by the company on the ground that its revenues had been decreasing, was denied.

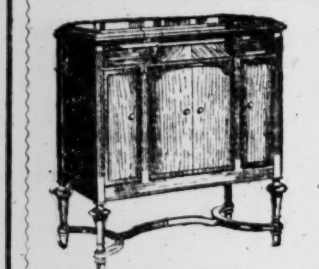

OCTOBER CIVIL JURY EXCUSED FOR TERM

The October term civil jury was excused for the rest of the term Friday by Federal Judge Samuel H. Siler in United States district court. Judge Siler will convene the hearing of non-jury business Monday. The March term, when new juries will be drafted, starts within a few weeks.

CAVERNOUS MOUTH LEADS TO ARREST; ROBBER CONFESSES

Kansas City, February 10.—(AP)—The making of "funny faces" in boyhood eventually led to the undoing of Clarence Shell.

Tuesday night a store was robbed here. One of the holdup men had the largest mouth the proprietor ever saw.

"He put all of a big red apple in his mouth," the proprietor told police. Last night police saw Shell and his great mouth. He was arrested and admitted the robbery.

Chicago, February 10.—(AP)—After a month of operation, Chicago's first taxicab company to employ girl chauffeurs had its first accident today with Miss Margaret Dodson, the chauffette, nursing a broken arm and fractured wrists.

WARSHIP BUILDING FOES TO BE HEARD

Washington, February 10.—(AP)—The first witnesses in opposition to the administration's $700,000,000 new warship construction program will be heard by the house naval committee next Wednesday. This decision was reached at an executive session today after some discussion.

The advisability of authorizing the program, considering in particular a list of figures submitted by Secretary Wilbur summarizing proposed naval expenditures between now and 1936, in which year the Washington naval arms treaty expires, also was discussed. This data was compiled by the secretary at the committee's request so that it would have in complete form the testimony regarding the subjects submitted during recent days by various naval officers for respective bureaus.

OBEDY, OR GO TO JAIL, R. R. HEADS WARNED

Houston, Texas, February 10.—(AP)—The federal court injunction, which union leaders have vigorously opposed as a weapon used against labor in industrial disputes, brought three officials of a railroad face to face with jail terms today for a fight waged on the Brotherhood of Railway Clerks.

Federal Judge J. C. Hutcheson gave three executives of the Southern Pacific lines of Texas and Louisiana, the choice of occupying jail cells for an indefinite stay, or obeying his decree disestablishing a "company union" and making the brotherhood the official labor body of the 3,500 clerical employees of the road in the two states.

Already found guilty of contempt of court for alleged defiance of an injunction granted the brotherhood last August by Judge Hutcheson, the rail officials came into court today for the scheduled showdown but obtained a delay of ten days in the imposition of penalties.

I. C. C. HEARS VIEWS ON U. S. CONTROL OF MOTOR BUSESSES

Washington, February 10.—(AP)—Conflicting views as to the necessity for a cooperative state and federal system of regulating motor bus and truck operation over highways in the common carriage of goods and passengers were expressed today in arguments before the interstate commerce commission.

Spokesmen for railroads and railroad organizations were unanimously in favor of a regulation over highway motor operations similar to that now imposed upon railroads, and were supported by various other interests, but opposed sharply by representatives of the motor industry on the proposal to establish the regulation over motor trucks.

HOUSE APPROVES WAR DEPARTMENT BUDGET REQUESTS

Washington, February 10.—(United News).—After approving amendments which added nearly $2,000,000 and brought the total up to about $406,000,000, the house today passed the war department appropriations bill by a vote of 229 to 124.

In voting the increase the house disregarded the administration's economy program and the recommendations of the budget bureau. The house rejected a motion by Representative Collins, Mississippi Democrat, to eliminate from the bill appropriations for transporting army troops to foreign countries without specific authority from congress. "This same proposal was defeated yesterday but Collins attempted to revive it by a motion today.

TOWN CLEANS UP

St. Marys Women Supervise Spring Cleaning.

St. Marys, Ga., February 10.—The clean-up, paint-up and plant-up campaign which has been going on in St. Marys for the past two weeks has made a vast difference in the orderliness of the town. The cooperative spirit shown in this campaign has been unusual, and unsightly structures which have remained standing for years have been destroyed.

Taylor is 5 feet 9 inches tall, weighs 145 pounds and has dark hair and fair complexion. Monday he was wearing a dark suit and a black leather coat.

EDISON TO OBSERVE HIS 81ST BIRTHDAY IN FLORIDA TODAY

Fort Myers, Fla., February 10.—(AP)—Thomas A. Edison reaching his 81st milestone tomorrow, is looking forward to the event chiefly because Mrs. Edison has promised him strawberries for luncheon.

Edison, for the past year suffering from intermittent attacks of an ailment which physicians call "a fancy name," but which Mrs. Edison describes as "old-fashioned dyspepsia," has been on a strict milk diet.

Tomorrow, however, Mrs. Edison has relented to the extent of including his favorite delicacy, luscious strawberries grown in his own garden here, on the menu of the birthday luncheon which she will prepare for him.

RUTH ELDER SAFE IN 'LOST' AIRPLANE KIDNAPED GUARDS

Hartford City, Ind., February 10.—(AP)—After a nerve-racking three-hour fight with the elements, a Stinson-Detroler six-passenger airplane piloted by Eddie Stinson and carrying five passengers, including Miss Ruth Elder, trans-Atlantic aviatrix, landed safely on a farm one mile north of here early tonight after finding it impossible to land at Detroit, the plane's destination.

Eddie Stinson, famous Detroit aviator, was piloting the plane which had gone to Chicago this morning from Detroit with a party of Detroit men and women to take Miss Elder back to Detroit. After a record flight of one hour and forty minutes on the trip back to Detroit, Stinson found it impossible to land at the Detroit flying field because of a heavy fog bank and because ice was rapidly forming on the wings of the plane, the pilot said at a hotel here tonight.

RATES ON OCEAN COTTON RATES CUT FROM GULF PORTS

New Orleans, February 10.—(AP)—Ocean rates on cotton from gulf ports to Italian and Adriatic ports were reduced to 50 cents a hundred pounds for high density cotton and 65 cents a hundred pounds on standard cotton for the months of March, April, May and June at a meeting of the Gulf-Mediterranean ports conference here today.

The reduction amounts to 5 cents a hundred pounds below the rates previously agreed upon by the seven steamship companies, which compose the conference. The low rate was brought about, officials said, by competition from " tramp " steamers.

BOY DISCOVERED SCRAWLING LETTER OF 3 DROWNINGS

Stevens Point, Wis., February 10.—(AP)—While his father, mother, and brother lay drowned in a water hole on the family farm at Belmont, Alva Rice, aged 10, today was found scrawling a letter to his aunt telling of the accident.

From the youngest authorities pieced together an incoherent story that pictured Allen, aged 11, breaking through the ice and his parents' vain attempt to save him. A neighbor boy visited the Rice home today and learned of the tragedy.

RECORDED ESSAYS PEACEMAKER ROLE IN AMAZON BATTLE

Judge Murphy M. Holloway Friday assumed the role of peacemaker, but with very little success, when Mrs. A. Taylor, 28, of 988 Kirkwood avenue, and Mrs. Priscilla Johnson, 16, of 1008 Kirkwood avenue, a bride of scarcely more than a month, were arraigned on charges of disorderly conduct.

The defendants, according to the testimony, had engaged in strenuous musical argument in front of Mrs. Taylor's home, February 1, following charges made by Mrs. Taylor that Mrs. Johnson had mistreated her son.

Friday Recorder Holloway told the two women to retire from the courtroom for 15 minutes and settle their trouble amicably. At the end of slightly more than 15 minutes they returned, with forced smiles on their faces, but that did not convince the recorder that a lasting peace had been made. He ordered the case held open and told the two defendants to report back to him in two weeks' time.

A case also was made against T. W. McWilliams, of a Whitehall street address, who is alleged to have stopped another neighbor from interfering with the dispute. The recorder ordered him also to report back after two weeks.

TRIPLER ELEPHANT GAME

YOUR CHANCE TO WIN $1,500.00

THE PROBLEM

The sums total of the figures on each of the three elephants pictured herewith are to be given as a solution. You can find the sum total of each elephant by adding up the figures of each. The figures 1, 2, and 3 in the circles in the upper left hand corners of the elephants are simply to identify them. These figures have nothing to do with the elephants' weights.

In submitting your solution you must identify the three elephants by their numbers, that is, the figure "1" is the highest figure shown. There are no "2's," "3's" or "9's," or like groups. If you find a "2" and a "3" are written so closely together that it looks like "23," it means that "2" and "3" are to be added—just as you would if they were an inch apart.

There are no figures in the picture except in the bodies of the elephants. The tops of the "6's" are distinctly curved, and the bottom of the "9's" are straight or nearly so. There is no trick or illusion in the charts.

GENERAL RULES OF THE CONTEST

1. This contest is open only to residents of Georgia and adjoining states. Both old and new subscribers may enter. No employee or member of an employee's family of The Atlanta Constitution will be allowed to participate in the contest, nor any of the prize winners that have won prizes in excess of $100.00 in any of the elephant contests heretofore conducted by The Atlanta Constitution.

2. Contestants may submit as many different solutions as they may desire, provided a payment of one of the amounts designated in the prize list shall accompany each solution, but no contestant will be permitted to win more than one prize. Once registered a solution cannot be changed. NO SOLUTION UNACCOMPANIED BY A SUBSCRIPTION PAYMENT WILL BE REGISTERED.

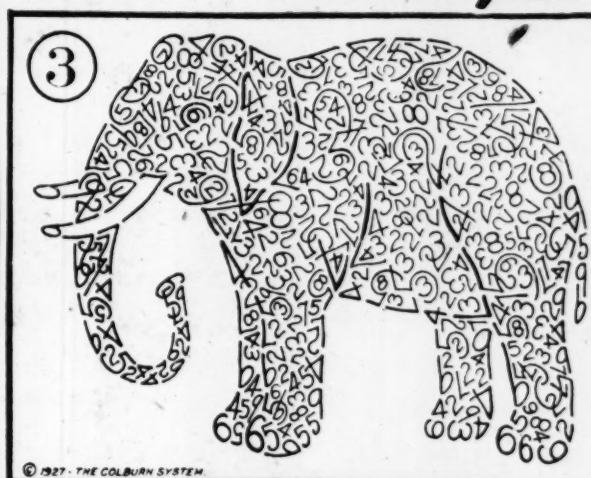

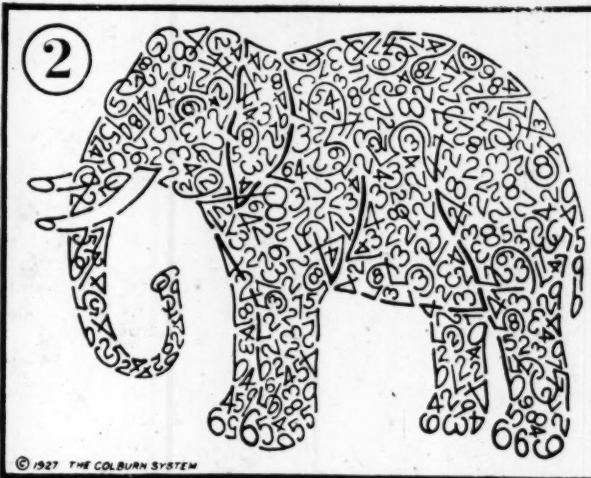

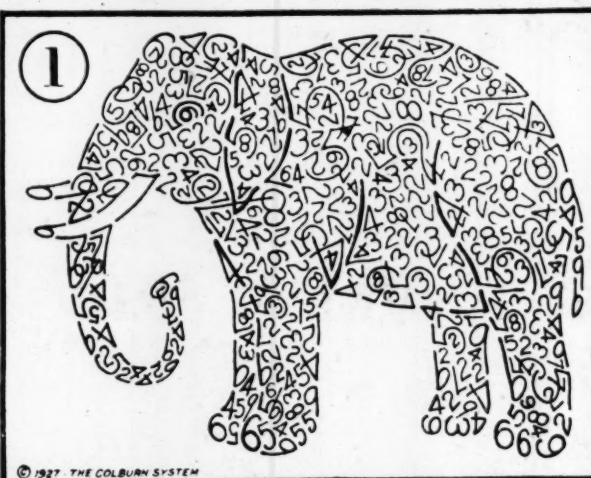

3. The Atlanta Constitution offers these prizes for individual effort. While it is proper for members of one household or several friends to work together, it is not permissible for more than one of those working in unison to send a solution of the puzzle. When, in the judgment of the contest manager or The Atlanta Constitution, more than one member of the same family or more than one of any number of persons he believes have worked together, and in a solution of the puzzle, the right is reserved to refund the amount of money paid for subscription and return the solution. It is believed has been submitted contrary to the rules.

4. The Atlanta Constitution reserves the right at any time to reject any solution which it believes has not been submitted under the proper conditions. In other words, any group of persons working together and submitting more than one solution, all submitted by the group will be barred. The Atlanta Constitution also reserves the right to finally decide any other questions or points which may arise in this contest, and participants by sending in their answers agree to accept the decisions of the contest manager of The Atlanta Constitution as conclusive and final.

5. In case of ties, as many prizes will be reserved as there are people tied before any prizes are awarded for a less correct solution; that is, if two or more people should tie in the best solution, the first two or more prizes will be reserved for them, and they will be awarded in order of the standing of their solutions of the second puzzle. That is, the best solution will be awarded the first prize, the next best second, and the third best third prize, etc.

6. All solutions with remittances must be delivered to the office of The Atlanta Constitution by 6:00 p. m., Thursday, March 29, 1928, or mailed at any post office in Georgia or adjoining states, bearing postmark of no later date than March 29.

7. The subscription rate of the daily and Sunday Constitution is $5.00 for six months, $9.50 for twelve months. All subscriptions in this contest must be paid in advance. Nothing less than six months' subscription will be accepted, and not more than twelve months' subscription is required. A subscription can be sent to one person and the solution credited to another, but the complete address of both must be given in each instance. This contest begins Thursday, February 9, and ends Thursday, March 29, 1928.

Patience and Persistence are the only requisites in winning one of the 30 big awards.

The least amount to accompany a solution in this contest is $5.00 for six months' subscription to the daily and Sunday Constitution, new or renewal. The greatest amount required is $9.50 for twelve months' subscription to the daily and Sunday Constitution, new or renewal. All renewal subscriptions will be extended for the time paid for beginning with the present paid date of the expiration of subscription. Subscriptions secured by the means of this contest in Atlanta and suburbs will be delivered by carrier service. In towns outside of Atlanta where The Constitution has carrier delivery service, the paper may be delivered by carrier upon request of the subscriber or the contestant. Otherwise, the paper will be sent by mail.

How to Win $1,500.00

To enter this contest it is necessary to send but one paid-in-advance subscription to the daily and Sunday Constitution for six months with $5.00, but you can increase the amount of the prize money that you will receive if you are a winner. For instance, with a $5.00 remittance and six months' subscription, should you win first prize the amount paid would be $500.00, but if the winner of first prize has qualified with a remittance of $9.50 for twelve months' subscription, the prize will be $1,500.00 instead of $500.00.

$500.00 will be awarded to the winner of first prize provided one six months' subscription to the daily and Sunday Constitution with $5.00 remittance is sent, new or renewal, $250.00 for second prize, $125.00 for third prize, etc.

$1,500.00 instead of $500.00 will be awarded to the winner of first prize provided one yearly subscription to the daily and Sunday Constitution is sent with $9.50, either new or renewal; second prize, $1,000.00; third prize, $500.00, etc. See last column in prize list. All subscriptions in this contest must be paid in advance.

In case of ties, a second puzzle, like the accompanying chart, except larger, will be presented for those tied to solve. The problem will consist of drawing a continuous chain across the chart encircling the figures in the circles. If necessary to eliminate further ties, the puzzle, with combinations changed, will be presented for as many as five more times, after which, should any ties exist, each tying contestant will receive the full amount of any prizes tied for.

In case there are no ties on counting elephants no other puzzle, of course, will be presented.

$7,500

Travel and Pedestrian Accident Insurance

issued to annual subscribers and immediate members of a subscriber's family of ages from 15 to 70 at $1.25 per policy each per year. This fee is in addition to the subscription price. Applicants should give name in full, state age and occupation, and when a beneficiary is given be sure to state full Christian name and relationship to the insured.

Here Is The Great Prize List

Note: The value of the prize depends on how much you pay on your subscription with your solution in the triplet elephant game. The amount paid will be applied to the daily and Sunday Constitution: Daily only or tri-weekly subscriptions not accepted in this contest, and no solution will be registered unless accompanied by at least $5.00 for six months' subscription. The least amount is $5.00 for six months' subscription, or the largest amount required is $9.50 for twelve months' subscription.

Both the solution and subscription must be sent in at the same time in same envelope.

| Seventh to Thirtieth Prizes | 5.00 | 25.00 |
| Total | $1,130.00 | $4,000.00 |

Important Facts To Remember

While the amount you pay with a solution of the puzzle does not have any effect on your winning an award, it does affect the amount you will receive should you win, as the value of these awards is determined by what the winners submit in subscription money. This is explained in the awards list, which you should study carefully before sending in your solution.

The time a solution is received has no bearing upon its winning an award. Accuracy is what counts.

Not more than one award will be awarded to any one person.

Club Favored Over Bulldogs In Second Tilt

Good, Close Game Expected
When Teams Tangle on

BY BEN COTHMAN.

Coach Joe Bean, genial mentor of the Atlanta Athletic club basketball team, today transports his squad to Athens, there to engage the University of Georgia courtmen for the second time this season and almost this week.

Last Saturday the Georgians came galloping into town, slightly clawed and lacerated by the Auburn Tiger and the night before in the loveliest

Monday night Georgia whipped Clemson by 38-to-25 score and that ceased their activities in public court circles for the week, retiring to the privacy of the gym there to prepare for the Speed.

If the club has another game in its system such as came out Wednesday night when Tech was beaten in a wild affair, there isn't much to be said except that the Atlantans will make it two straight over the lads of Athens. That game Wednesday was fast. The boys covered the court in fast fashion, they passed quickly and the entire thing was over in a hurry. Spills were numerous, guarding was frenzied, baskets were made frequently. Joe McCrory, club guard, is enough in himself to cause the defeat of any man's team. Under his own basket, it's hard to get by for a shot. And every so often he wanders down the floor to make goals for his own side. Wednesday he filled Tech's basket to the extent of 15 points.

But there's more to the club team than Joe McCrory. There's Pat Stephens. There's Cy Bell. In fact, there's the whole squad. Two good teams, one about as good as the other. Coach Joe can send in five men for relief duty.

and when he does, it doesn't mean that the other side will break out in a rash of points.

Revamped Team.

Georgia has its revamped team with Palmer, ex-guard, playing forward, and doing very well. Still, in basketball, guards don't have to be changed to forward to shine in that position. Didn't Heeke, of Tech, and McCrory, of A. C., shoot most of the points in Wednesday night's affair? Wasn't Pat Stephens, club forward, held to four points? Sure. But did you notice his defensive work, worthy of any guard. So there you are. You can't figure this game of basketball. The best thing to do is approach it with an open mind, and let it run its course. Don't be surprised at anything.

We digress, however. Georgia has Martin at forward, and Lantzenhiser, newcomer, playing guard. Their per-

Georgia playing on its own court stands in a favorable position to down the club, but we hardly think so. Taking it on form, a foolish thing to do, but it's done just the same, the club but it's done just the same. The club is in for another victory. Victory by a few points, but still, victory.

Petrel Rats Play Darlington Today

BY FRED McEACHIN.

Meeting their first real opposition of the season, the Oglethorpe freshman five will encounter the fast Darlington quintet of Rome in the Oglethorpe gym this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

This engagement with the Baby Petrels marks the initial appearance of the Romans on a local court.

Their record is unblemished and in view of this fact the Rats should be in for a hard afternoon.

The most outstanding accomplishment of the visiting cagemen is the victory over McCallie, one of the leading prep schools in the south.

In the four games which they have played the first year men at Oglethorpe have made a very good record and the fracas this afternoon should prove a good test of their strength. The brunt of the burden will be borne by Claude Herrin, freshman, who has averaged above 20 points in all games this year.

JUGGERNAUT

By Alice Campbell

Esther Rowe, a young nurse, having accompanied an invalid from the United States to Cannes on the Riviera, is about to return to New York when she sees an advertisement in the paper for a nurse and doctor's assistant, and she decides to apply for the job in order to spend a little time in Cannes.

While waiting for an answer to her application to Dr. Scriverius, Esther treats herself to tea at the fashionable Restaurant des Ambassadeurs. She becomes interested in the conversation of a beautiful French woman and her escort, an Englishman, who sit at the next table. On returning to her hotel, Esther finds a note from the doctor asking her to report in the morning.

The beautiful French woman of the restaurant comes to see Dr. Scriverius and Esther learns that she is Lady Clifford.

A few days later Sir Charles Clifford is stricken with typhoid fever and Dr. Scriverius gives up his practice and laboratory work to serve as his private physician. Esther is taken as day nurse.

INSTALLMENT XII—GOOD NEWS.

"I felt it from the first," continued Miss Clifford. "You see my brother's symptoms were so exactly like those of the man who is ill. There was only this difference, that my brother was a good deal longer developing his case. I don't know why, I'm sure, for he's so much older, and not in robust health, either, you'd have thought he'd succumb more quickly than a young, strong woman."

"You would think so," agreed Esther, "but, of course, there are many types of typhoid, it has so many variations. I've even seen people who had all the symptoms fully developed, yet who never knew it and kept about the whole time."

"Really?"

Miss Clifford looked frankly astonished.

"How is Sir Charles now?"

"Why, not so ill as one might have expected," replied his sister more cheerfully. "We have up till now much to be thankful for. The other nurse will tell you what she thinks, and, of course, you'll see the chart, but I believe I'm right in saying they consider it a mild case."

"I'm glad of that."

"You'll see him after lunch. The other nurse is going off duty then until about 11 o'clock tonight. Tomorrow will see you straightened out with regard to your hours. I thought we'd have you for the day, because—" she laughed—"without meaning to descend to bare faced flattery, you are rather more to look at."

"I shan't know how much of a compliment that is till I see the other nurse," replied Esther, laughing, too.

"You will think me stupid," resumed the old lady after a slight pause, "but for weeks past, even before this happened, I've had such an odd sense of insecurity, a presentiment of trouble, I'm not given to feelings of that kind, which makes this one more noticeable. I can't explain it, but I'm afraid I do."

"You shouldn't feel it now that your brother is going on so well."

"No, of course not, but I'm afraid I do."

"I expect you are tired and run down. That causes lots of worries and presentiments."

"Yes, no doubt you're right. Was that the bell?" she asked, breaking off and listening alertly. "For two days I've been looking for a cable from my nephew. I sent him one nearly three days ago, but there has been no reply. I can't make it out."

"Is that Sir Charles' son?"

"Yes. He has been in America on business since October. I sent the cable to Chicago, which was the last address we had, but he may have moved a good deal since then, and the cable would have to be wired on, which probably accounts for the delay. I wish he were here; it would be the greatest possible comfort."

"There was a knock, and the butler entered with the blue form of a depeche in his hand."

"Ah, here it is at last! This surely must be from Mr. Roger, Chalmers."

She took the telegram eagerly and tore it open, reading its contents with an expression of mingled joy and amazement.

"This is odd. It is sent from Cherbourg and says simply, 'Shall be with you Friday morning. Friday! That's tomorrow. Why, he has arrived in France, and is catching the night train from Paris. That is a surprise, isn't it, Chalmers?'"

"And, Miss, if you'll notice, it's addressed to Sir Charles, not to yourself."

"Is it? You are right, Chalmers."

That looks as though he'd never got our cable, doesn't it? I suppose he couldn't, if he was already on the water."

"Unless," suggested Esther, "they sent it on by wireless to the boat."

"Of course, I didn't think of that. Anyhow it doesn't matter now that he will be here so soon. He must have wanted to surprise us. We didn't expect him for another two months."

She turned briskly to the butler. "Get the corner room read, Chalmers. What a good thing we put the doctor at the back! And tell her ladyship we're expecting Mr. Roger—or no, I'll see to that myself."

"Very good, Miss. It will be good to see Mr. Roger, won't it, Miss?" said the old man, preparing to go. "It will do Sir Charles a world of good."

"Of course," mused Miss Clifford when the butler had departed, "if he hasn't had our news, it will be a shock to him to find his father ill. I am very fond of my nephew, Miss Rowe," she added. "He is almost like my own son."

"I suppose," she said rising, "I'd better go and tell my sister-in-law."

She moved about undecidedly, and it occurred to Esther that the task she was contemplating was an unbecomingly one, though why it should be so was not apparent. She turned suddenly to Esther.

"Come with me, Miss Rowe," she suggested. "I can show you your patient's quarters at the same time."

They quitted the room and turned back to the central hall.

"This is my sister-in-law's bedroom," Miss Clifford informed her, laying her hand on the first door. "That third door leads to my brother's room with his dressing room and bath beyond. This middle one is a sort of boudoir or sitting room—it is really Lady Clifford's but I use it, too."

"Are you there, Therese?" she called, going through the door.

"Yes, come in."

Lady Clifford was seated with her back towards the door at a writing table, placed between the windows. She did not immediately turn, but instead looked up, meeting the reflection of her visitors in a mirror on the wall. It was the first time on the day she had seen her without a hat, and she found her not less lovely. Her golden brown hair waved back from a side parting, revealing the carefully crowned artlessness which is the crowning achievement of a coiffeur, and in color it exactly matched her soft frock, which was of the sports variety with a finely plaited skirt. The skin of her throat was milky white and of the fineness of a flower petal. Against her pearls showed a faint rose tinge. She was smoking a cigarette through a long holder.

"Therese, this is our other nurse, who has just come. You remember you saw her at the doctor's the other day."

The Frenchwoman laid down her pen and turned towards Esther with a bright, perfunctory smile.

"Ah, yes, I remember."

Her gray eyes looked Esther over appraisingly from head to foot, then returned to the sheet of paper on the desk. Miss Clifford spoke again, with slight hesitation.

"What I really came to tell you, Therese, is that I have just had a telegram from Roger."

"From Roger?"

The younger woman stared blankly. "A cable, you mean, not a telegram."

"No, a telegram, from Cherbourg. He says he will be here tomorrow."

With one bound Lady Clifford sprang to her feet.

"Roger here tomorrow?" she exclaimed almost sharply, her eyes fixed on her sister-in-law's face. "But it is impossible, you must be mistaken."

Her cigar fell out of the holder to the floor, where it would have burned a hole in the carpet if Esther had not quietly picked it up.

"That's what he says."

Georgia Farm Women Handicraft Exhibition Opens Saturday

The exhibit of the work of farm women opening Saturday on the sixth floor of M. Rich & Bros. Co. represents months of effort on the part of Federated clubwomen of Georgia assisted by the county home demonstration agents to assemble the best examples of needlecraft in the state. Modern work was not desired, so through a very carefully planned and executed system in every county, these women were sought out and reached who were keeping alive the old crafts or heirlooms which could be copied by skilled fingers.

The result has been a collection of rarely beautiful objects for the home, reproducing faithfully the best old designs, combined with durability of material and colors. Rugs, hooked and woven, with rich colors artistically blended; tufted bedspreads in all white or in colors, copied from those which one time graced the stately homes; crocheted spreads, in beautiful and intricate designs; patchwork quilts, "The Rising Sun," "Tulip" and other old favorites recalling days at grandmother's, will be shown. Baskets of white oak, of pine needles and of honey-suckle, durable and lovely. Woven coverlets, pillows and bags; silhouettes, delicate lace, are among the objects displayed.

Mrs. Ira E. Farmer, chairman home demonstration in the Georgia Federation of Women's Clubs, realizing the possibilities for the revival of the old handicrafts for the farm women of the state, has made this the work of her division for the past year and through the help of the women over the state, has brought the exhibit to Atlanta. It will be shown throughout next week.

Lithonia Chapter U. D. C. Holds Initial Meet.

Prominent Atlanta women attended the initial meeting of the recently organized Mildred Ruthford chapter, U. D. C., which was held at 4 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, February 8, at the home of Mrs. J. Atlanta History Class Hears Miss Whiteside Read Play

Mrs. John Morris entertained the Atlanta History class Friday afternoon at her home on Peachtree road, the feature of which was a reading of her own one-act play by Miss Mary Brent Whiteside, entitled "Stairs to the Sun," and the first time ever read in Atlanta. This play has been chosen by the Louisiana Poetry society to be read before its February meeting, and chosen by the Little Theater guild, of New Orleans, to be presented at the guild theater in the French district.

The fact that talented Miss Whiteside appears but seldom in public made the reading a distinct compliment to the members of the cultured coterie, and Mrs. Morris invited a small group of intimate friends outside of the membership to enjoy the event. Miss Whiteside's poems have received world-wide recognition, her first book of poetry having been published by the London Poetry society, at whose hands she received honorary awards, and she is a member of the British Poetry society, having received many distinctions from this organization. The honorary degree of doctor of letters was conferred recently upon Miss Whiteside by Oglethorpe university, and she has been honored by the Virginia Society of Poetry.

Georgia Products For Georgia Day—

Birthdays are good for marking achievement as well as time.

One hundred and ninety-five years ago, the first Georgia settlers landed on the banks of the Savannah River. Desolate shores and "forest primeval" did not long prevent infant industries. Within a short time, the English Custom House received a chest of silk, wound by "Mary, wife of Lewis Camuse," and exported from the youngest colony. Georgia's commercial and industrial life was under way.

Throughout one-third of this long life, it has been Rich's privilege to have a part in the increasing independence of the state, to share in the growing opportunity to use Georgia-made goods. State pride and state loyalty, both old and new, dictate our store-wide sale of products with which today we observe Georgia's birthday by showing honor to Georgia's industries. Among the articles of home merchandise featured are

Archer hosiery—Columbus
Sea-island and feather ticking—Columbus
Turkish towels and bedspreads—Griffin
Outing—Griffin

Hand-tufted spreads—North Georgia
Sheeting—Thomaston
Brooms and mops—Atlanta
Felt baby shoes—Atlanta
Animal toys—Atlanta
Stationery—Atlanta

Here is a sale of many meanings. Besides furnishing a good opportunity to buy at exceptionally low prices, it pays tribute to Georgia's birthday. Indicates her status as a manufacturing state. Registers the renewed purpose of a Georgia institution to stand by the

PERJURY CHARGED TO NEGRO JANITOR IN LAWYER'S TRIAL

An indictment charging perjury in connection with his testimony in the recent trial of Carl Lancaster was returned by the Fulton grand jury Friday against John Lowe, negro janitor of a North Boulevard apartment.

While Lowe first stated, according to the solicitor's office, that he heard muffled screams from the apartment occupied by the lawyer on the morning of January 9, he later retracted this assertion and declared to the jury it was the sound of a talking machine and laughter which attracted his attention.

S. C. V. CAMP DISCUSSES NEW MEMBER DRIVE

The regular semi-monthly meeting of the John B. Gordon camp No. 46, Sons of Confederate Veterans, was held at noon Friday at the Ansley hotel. One of the features of the meeting was a discussion of a campaign to increase membership in the camp to 1,000. A. W. McKend was principal speaker and talked of the objective of the recruiting committee, and of the necessity for the membership campaign.

PULLMAN THIEVES HELD UNDER BOND

The aftermath of the wild excitement of early morning on the crack Royal Palm of the Southern railway was enacted Friday afternoon in police court, when Recorder A. W. Callaway bound over Robert T. Garland, alias Robert Cotterill, and Frank E. Russell to state court under $10,000 bond each on charges of robbing passengers in the Pullman cars.

After the defendants waived preliminary trial and were bound over the robbery passengers identified their belongings and prepared to resume their interrupted journeys. Those who appeared against Garland and Russell in police court were J. W. Hutchins, of Detroit, of the Dodge Brothers Motor company; Lyle Harrier, of Ann Arbor, Mich.; and D. B. Green, assistant general freight agent of the Florida East Coast railway, of St. Augustine. A. A. Alexander, another passenger who was robbed of his false teeth, eyeglasses and money, continued on to his home in Toronto, Canada, it was said.

Hutchins, who was robbed of everything but a suit of pajamas and a pair of trousers, was the first passenger to discover the robbery. It was said, Garland and Russell, together with Garland's wife, were found in alleged possession of the property and held for Atlanta police when the train reached this city. Mrs. Garland will be released, however, as there are no charges against her, it was said. Both Garland and Russell are alleged to have signed a confession stating that they boarded the train at Jacksonville and "prowled" through the berths after midnight, placing the stolen property in their grips. The alleged confession claims that Mrs. Garland had no knowledge of the robbery activities. Garland and Russell have been identified as former inmates of the federal penitentiary, having served terms for violation of the motor vehicle theft act, it was said.

Auto Association Is Seeking 10,000 Georgia Members

Individual memberships in the recently organized Georgia State Automobile association are nearing the 1,000 mark, according to a statement issued by officials of the organization Saturday. This includes members who have joined a dozen county branches which have been set up in all sections of the state.

The goal of the association is 10,000 for the present year, which will make it one of the largest in the south. The state leader at present is the Carolina Motor club, of North Carolina, which has between 12,000 and 15,000 members after three years of existence.

Twelve more counties are slated for county branches during the coming week, it is stated. District managers, who are aiding local motorists in securing the necessary membership will be present in West Point, Chipley, Hamilton, Blairsville, Eatonton, Milledgeville, Cutbert, Lumpkin and Marietta, to confer with the local leaders in regard to obtaining the necessary membership and installing a A. A. service.

In Brunswick the chamber of commerce and the Young Men's club are united in a campaign for 200 members during the coming week, in order that a special A. A. headquarters with full A. A. information service can be installed for the benefit of northbound tourists from Florida. A Camden county branch, which was organized during the past week, with Darien also active in working for a branch, so that within a few days a complete Georgia State Automobile association organization and service will be available along the coastal highway.

FARM BUREAU SHOWS REVENUE OF $430,942

Revenues of $430,942 for the year 1927 and expenditures of $421,759 are shown for the state department of agriculture in an audit of the department filed with Governor Hardman recently by Sam J. Slate, state auditor.

At the same time Mr. Slate filed audits of the real estate commission and the state securities commission.

The agricultural department's revenues included a state appropriation of $173,685, food inspection fees totaling $52,587, fertilizer inspection fees of $82,421, and oil inspection fees of $101,653, after payment into the state treasury of $308,796 from this source.

Chief disbursements were salaries of $198,180, oil inspectors' fees of $101,834, traveling expenses of $48,654, and publications costing $23,763.

The audit of the securities commission showed receipts of $21,347 for the year 1927, there consisting of revenue from license fees. Disbursements were reported as $10,298, leaving a balance of $10,967, which was turned into the state treasury.

The real estate commission had receipts of $17,420 and expenditures of $13,465, leaving a remainder of $3,955, turned into the state treasury. The receipts came from fees charged for licenses issued to brokers and salesmen.

GEORGIA FINANCIALLY HEALTHY, REPORT SAYS

Washington, February 10.—(AP)—A healthy financial condition is the state of Georgia for the 18-month period ending December 31, 1927, in so far as national banks are concerned, is indicated in reports to the treasury department from 83 national banks. Senator Harris, democrat, of that state, has been advised by the comptroller of the currency.

Pointing out that with the addition of only one bank during the period, Controller McIntosh informed Senator Harris that total resources increased from $201,244,000 June 30, 1926, to $289,839,000 December 31, 1927.

Total deposits in national banks of Georgia at the beginning of the period were $155,978,000. Eighteen months later the deposits had grown to $196,501,000. During the 18 months demand deposits alone grew from $76,608,000 to $107,874,000.

The one item in which the greatest proportional increase was noted, it was said, is that of bonds, stocks and securities owned by the 83 banks exclusive of United States securities. Holdings were valued at $9,204,000 June 30, 1926; 18 months later the figure reached $18,089,000, or more than 90 per cent increase.

We wish to thank the women of Atlanta for their remarkable response to our new policy of selling
Southern Bread and Cake through
Atlanta's groceries

LAST SUNDAY we told Atlanta housewives that beginning Monday they could buy Southern Bread at their regular grocers, wherever they lived and whenever they wanted it.

The enthusiastic response of Atlanta women to this announcement far exceeded our greatest hopes. We have not been able to compile the complete figures showing how many Atlanta women bought Southern Bread this week from their grocers, but it is safe to say that never has Southern Bread been so popular as it is today; never have so many thousands of Atlantans enjoyed such delicious bread.

Southern Bread is really the bread of the women of Atlanta. Thirty thousand Atlanta housewives helped us to perfect it—to give it its unusually pleasing flavor; its fine, soft texture; its smooth, even grain . . . this bread that's 20% richer!

It is being delivered regularly to Atlanta grocers now. Fresh every morning. Fresh every afternoon. Be sure to buy a loaf of Southern Bread for the week-end—many women buy two loaves to be certain they have enough to last until Monday. It will keep its freshness, for that is sealed in by the lavender-and-white wrapper.

RADIO-ING.

The Dial Twister is wondering as he writes this if he needs more little liver pills or a vacation or what? You see, we have just finished about two hours of twirling the dials. We have listened to blue and red chains and the Columbia network, as well as some independent stations.

BY WILL SMITH

So we are wondering if it is us, or if it is the programs that were broadcasted Friday night. Before we pass judgment, we will sleep on it. We guess we are all likely to be off at times.

Bob and Mary are in trouble. They have been arrested! Mary is heartbroken. She feels it all her fault, but Bob says speedily will not mean that they will lose their jobs. On the way to the "colder" they find they have been kidnapped—but by friends who insist that these two True Story hour folks stop in their town. They are listening in on KMOX, St. Louis, while the Columbia system broadcasts one of its regular Friday night hours.

"Taps" always reminds us of those final good-night 10 o'clock calls we heard back in 1917 at Mare Island, California. Some of those marine bands certainly could drag you out until the "boon" marines held their collective breath. And here comes "taps" from KDKA, TheWXYZ review "The Magic Isle" from the Magic Isle. Interesting as the old king and his court of entertainers are, we are going to step up to the Anglo-Persians.

We tune in WWJ without much trouble, and only a reasonably small amount of interference from WSAI, and get some of the music of the Orient. We are at the tail end of the half hour, but are glad to hear at least one number of this program.

Fiddlers, Jew's harp and mouth organ all combine to make a novelty number from the Wrigley Magic Isle (we are listening in from WSB) help "Go in to Have a Big Time Tonight." And so we listen as the entertainment unfolds, accordion solo, quartet, orchestra. We have to hope we heard better Wrigley hours, or we have happened tonight to tune in just when it is mostly novelty. To better judge we are keeping their fingers from the dials, and we are leaving for Mary and Bob again before they sign off for another week.

We hear the "happy ever after" ending of the true story and the folks who kidnapped Mary and Bob are now singing a farewell song, for they are leaving tonight at 8 o'clock Mary and Bob will be at the Mardi Gras in New Orleans.

Before we stop for the night, the Dial Twister is going to spend a very few minutes with W.L.W. Charlotte and Mary are having such a good time. It's "Horse Feathers" as we tune in.

Saturday night being weekly bath night, and movie night, and late to bed night, we hope you will all enjoy yourselves. Should you want to listen in for awhile, you will find the following schedule of interest:

WWJ at 6 o'clock will bring you popular Hawaiian tunes. Say, folks, there are some good numbers listed. Listen at 7 o'clock, if you want to catch a different kind of hour just listen in again on WWJ to the High-Jinks in solemn convention for the purpose of nominating a president and vice-president.

Herbert's "The Serenade" will be the Philco opera with Jessica Dragonette in the leading role at 8 o'clock.

10:00 A. M.—Homemakers' chat, weather and market news.

12:30 P. M.—Ansley Rathskeller tries.

1:00 P. M.—Georgia State College of Agriculture.

1:30 P. M.—University of Georgia.

6:00 P. M.—Dr. Marion McH. Hull's weekly Sunday school lesson.

8:30 P. M.—The Packard Parade.

NEGRO'S MISTAKE CAUSES ARREST ON RUM CHARGE

Henry Crawford, negro, made a mistake in identity when he failed Federal Prohibition Agent A. J. Spence as "Boss" and made no effort to escape when the officer pulled a still in Rockdale county Thursday. Henry realized his error too late to prevent his arrest, as the officer at ready had him by the arm. It was learned Friday when Crawford was bound over to the federal grand jury by United States Commissioner L. S. Ledbetter under $200 bond.

The other alleged operators of the still escaped when the officers appeared. Henry admitted to Judge Ledbetter that he worked at the still since 1928, and that he had a still in the alley, spring a new one on prohibition officers when she had 14 gallons of whiskey in a trap under the table of a dining room table. The officers told Judge Ledbetter, Annie was held under $200 bond.

CHAMBERLIN VISITS ATLANTA MARCH 6; WELCOME PLANNED

Atlanta will have Clarence Chamberlin, pilot of the Ballona monoplane, in its record-breaking flight to Germany, as its honored guest on Tuesday, March 6, it was learned Friday.

Preliminary plans for Chamberlin's reception in the city were discussed by a group of Atlantans at noon Friday at a luncheon at the Biltmore hotel, but no plans will be made public until a later meeting, it was stated Friday afternoon.

Chamberlin will arrive here in a Sherry "C" biplane, in which he will be touring the country on a "good will" flight.

Gregory C. Bowden, chairman of the aviation committee of the chamber of commerce, Milton Dargatz, Jr., president of the chamber, Holland B. Jenkins, manager of the Biltmore hotel, and others interested in aviation, Chamberlin will arrive here in a Sherry "C" biplane, in which he will be touring the country on a "good will" flight.

Baby Boy Slayer of Uncle

FACES BAR IN MOTHER'S ARMS

Savannah, Ga., February 10.—(AP)—His arms clinging to his mother's neck, Irwin W. Williams, 5-year-old boy, faced the recorder here Friday on a charge of murder and was dismissed.

The baby was technically charged with shooting his uncle, Paul Pope English, to death with a shotgun yesterday while English and a sister-in-law struggled for a piece of string which the boy wanted. While the two scuffled, Irwin obtained a shotgun, pointed it at English and fired.

Witnesses said, English died almost instantly. Attired in a brown knitted cap and sweater, Irwin looked at the recorder from the safety of his mother's arms. The court

The Atlantic Plywood, Dan Hill Wyman, Celanese, American Cyanamid, American Lumber and Keystone Steel Co., all reported large early gains for Peoples Drug Stores, Inc., Sanitary Grocers and Oceanic Navigation.

Shipping was moved within narrow limits.

The announcement of an increase of 303,673 tons in the January underlying interest also was a sprinkling of gains quite so large. Trading showed a marked falling off in volume, compared with recent sessions, the day's sales falling below 2,250,000 shares.

DOCTORS SOUGHT FOR GREAT CLINIC

Selection of the 75 physicians who will conduct the Atlanta Lions club's clinic for examination of 1,000 babies was made Friday. Names of these doctors will not be made known at any time during the clinic, however, since the doctors themselves have decided that it would be a technical violation of their professional ethical code, which prohibits publicity of any sort.

The 75 doctors selected will be the ablest Atlanta doctors, Joseph B. Wolfe, president of the Lions club, said Friday. Obtaining their services for this work proved a big task, and late Friday the list had not been completed.

Police Band to Aid.
It also was announced Friday that the Atlanta police band, of 45 pieces, has offered its services for an hour's concert at the auditorium on the night of March 3 when the clinic will come to an end with a huge coronation ball.

At this ball Governor L. G. Hardman will honor the best young woman ticket seller of 20, representing many Atlanta firms, by crowning her queen. These young women are at present busy engaged in their contest but their respective organizations do not know. The 1-lets they are selling each represent a donation to the Lions underprivileged child fund. 25 votes in the contest will be given to the girl who has the most votes.

Impatient mothers continued Friday to demand registration of their babies at the office, 10 Peachtree street, opened for that purpose. J. J. Russell, in charge of this office, continued just as steadily to tell them that registration would not begin until next Monday, a story that he has been telling at least 50 times a day since Tuesday morning.

An entire week has been provided for the registration of these babies. During the following week appointments will be mailed to all mothers whose infants are registered, informing them when they will be expected to present their offspring at the Medical Arts building for clinical examination. The clinic will be opened Monday morning, February 27.

MEISEL TIRE FIRM WILL OPEN STORE IN ATLANTA SOON

The first store of the Meisel Tire company, chain of Cleveland, Ohio, south of Washington, will be opened in Atlanta within the next few days, according to an announcement of Vice President J. E. Rosenthal Friday.

The store will be operated at 120 South Spring street, where it is to be opened in the south, Mr. Rosenthal said. C. F. Kuehl, Jr., who formerly had charge of a Meisel store in Baltimore, will be in charge. The company handles United States tires exclusively.

Montgomery County Flogger Convicted; Light Sentence Asked

Mr. Vernon G. Ga., February 10.—(P) Joe Henry Wolfe, 22, was convicted in the superior court here late Friday of being a member of the hooded mob which brutally flogged Frank R. Gordon, 21-year-old farmer of Montgomery county.

The jury in returning the verdict recommended that he be sentenced for misdemeanor. The sentence will be imposed sometime tomorrow morning by Judge E. Schol Graham, of the Oconee circuit, who presided at the trial.

Thomas Hardwick, former governor of Georgia, aided Solicitor General M. B. Boyer in the prosecution of the trial.

Gordon was flogged last February 5, while he, in company with Ernest Adams, was on his way home from a visit to Vidalia. The marauders beat Gordon into insensibility because he took an interest in a negro, a court case, in which Wolfe was a defendant. Four others, Bruce Morris, Emmett Johnson, H. B. Bendire and John Crosby, who were indicted with Wolfe, will be tried at the May term of court.

Hugh Hodgson New Organist At St. Luke's

The vestry of St. Luke's Episcopal church announced Friday that Hugh L. Hodgson, distinguished southern musician, has become organist and choirmaster of the church, and will serve in that capacity Sunday. Mr.

Hodgson, who is one of Atlanta's foremost pianists and organists, is head of the newly-created department of music at the University of Georgia in Athens.

Mr. Hodgson has appeared with conspicuous success in concerts throughout the country and appeared annually as soloist with the Atlanta Symphony orchestra. He is a graduate and Phi Beta Kappa from the University of Georgia, and did post-graduate work at Columbia university.

He received his musical training under leading German and American instructors, studying organ under William C. Carl, of the Guilford School of Organ, and composition under Rubin Goldmark.

Having been a Duo-Art artist for several years, he was recently elected to the editorial staff of the Aeolian Piano company, makers of the famous new audiographic recordings on piano playing. He has had a wide range of experience during the past 15 years both as organist and a choral leader, and his association with the church is one of great musical interest in the community.

Mr. Hodgson's program Sunday morning will be: Organ Prelude, Le-mare's Andantino; Gloria, Barthelemy's Andante; Noble's B minor Te Deum; Noble's Jubilate in B minor; Wagner's two-fold Anthem; Mendelssohn's "How Lovely Are Thy Messengers"; Stainer's seven-fold Anthem; organ postlude, Dubois.

GETS TEN YEARS ONLY TEN HOURS AFTER HIS ARREST
Battle Creek, Mich., February 10.—(United News.)—Less than 10 hours after he was arrested Lester Daniels, 21, charged with attacking a 5-year-old girl, was sentenced to Jackson penitentiary for 10 years.

Daniels was arrested after an all-night search. At the opening of his night trial, he was arraigned and waived examination. He was taken to the court and pleaded guilty. When he was brought back later in the day, Judge Blaine Hatch sentenced him to 10 years with the maximum reformation.

Judge Hatch announced late today that he will suspend sentence until Daniels can examine Daniels to determine if he is sane.

MORNINGSIDE DRIVE EXTENSION IS PLAN OF CITIZENS' BODY

Plans for the extension of Morningside drive to Emory university as far as Druid Hills were formulated at a meeting of the Morningside Civic League Thursday night, but action on the matter was deferred until February 16.

The meeting also considered urging the paving of Piedmont avenue to the Belt Line railway, paving of Courtney drive into North Boulevard and completion of the paving of North Boulevard from the Belt railway out.

A committee was named to seek the cooperation of the North Boulevard Civic league in the North Boulevard project.

YOGANANDA SCANS SUPREME COURT AS FINAL RESORT

Miami, Fla., February 10.—(P)—Injunctive relief from police interference with his lectures, Swami Yogananda, Hindu philosopher, will appeal to the supreme court of Florida "unless he changes his mind," R. P. Gantier, by the Swami's attorney, announced tonight.

He probably will not make an address without the court's protection, Gantier said, "because while I can advise him he would be within his rights, I cannot advise him that it would be judicious." Gantier said he would advise his client there was no reason why he should remain here, since it would be injudicious to attempt to pursue his calling.

Circuit Judge A. J. Ross today denied the injunction sought by Gantier after Quigg had asserted he would complete in jail any lecture he started in public.

MRS. C. A. HOWLAND, CONTRALTO, TO SING IN SHELDON RECITAL

Mrs. Charles A. Howland, contralto, who recently moved to Atlanta from Philadelphia, will sing in a concert recital at 8:30 o'clock Sunday in the city auditorium.

Mrs. Howland was formerly soloist at the Grace Lutheran church in Swarthmore, Pa., and also at Trinity Presbyterian and the Church of St. John's Reformed in Philadelphia.

She studied in New York under Professor Roger, Oscar Sanger, J. Warren Shaw and in Philadelphia under Professor George Thompson.

She will sing the following numbers Sunday afternoon: Salter's "Cry of Rachel"; "Shepherd Take Me by the Hand"; "The Rose Tree"; "Leave It With Him"; James G. Ellis.

DE LUXE MOTOR BUS WILL VISIT ATLANTA ON TOUR IN SPRING
Fifteen passengers on a de luxe motor coach of the En Route Service, Inc., which will tour the south this spring, will include Atlanta on their itinerary, according to Holland Jenkins, manager of the Baltimore hotel, where the party will stop.

The coach is scheduled to arrive about noon March 11 and to leave the next morning after visiting Stone Mountain and other points of interest in the city. Mr. Jenkins said that this was the first time that Atlanta had been included in such a tour, and that this was a notable achievement.

At the close of the war, Dr. Jaeger entered the foreign office as an attaché and served in this capacity until 1919, when he was assigned to the Franco-German commission dealing with the settlement of the Alsace-Lorraine dispute. He later saw service with the German embassy in Paris. From 1921 until 1927, he served as the German consulate general at Barcelona, Spain, first as vice consul and later as consul. He was transferred from Barcelona to Atlanta.

Rome Hotel Enlarged.

Rome, Ga., February 10.—(P)—The Rome Hotel, one of the 55 room and bath to the General Electric hotel, necessitating the construction of an additional two stories to the building, is being completed by Hackett, proprietor. Plans and specifications are to be made as soon as possible, according to a statement made by Mr. Hackett.

Hey! Skinny! Here's Luckiest Guy Alive! Read It and Weep!
West Orange, N. J., February 10.—(P)—Some kids have all the luck Howard Michels' parents would not let him start school until last September when he reached his 12th birthday. Soon after he began in first grade Howard became ill with measles that kept him home for several weeks. Two days after his return to school he was stricken with measles fever and did not resume his "R's" until last Monday. Now Howard is home again. He has chicken pox.

NEW GERMAN CONSUL OPENS OFFICES HERE

Important business connections with this city in the cotton trade have drawn widespread attention in Germany to Atlanta and its future, and this was one of the prime reasons for

The high court's original judgment, delivered January 11, sustained Chatham superior court in ordering the commissioners to levy for the year 1927 a five-mile school tax voted in June, 1926, at a county election.

The levy would have been in addition to the maximum school tax levy of five mills permitted to counties by the state constitution, and the point at issue was whether such an additional tax was constitutional.

ONE-LEGGED NEGRO WALKS TO GALLOWS, BIBLE IN POCKET

Natchitoches, La., February 10.—(P)—Aaron Ray, 32, one-legged negro, was hanged in the p-rish jail here today for slaying of Ross Douson, Chestnut, La., postmaster, last October 27.

The negro was imposed as he walked to the gallows. He carried a small Bible in his hands and when officers started to tie his hands he slipped it into his pocket. Shortly before the march to the gallows the negro told officers he and another negro, whose name he said was Willie Ward, fired on Douson when an unidentified white man stood outside the postoffice. Previously he had denied firing the fatal shot.

CITY ELECTRICIAN LEADER TO VISIT ATLANTA FEB. 26
David Reed, president of the International Association of City Electricians and city electrician of Dover, Colo., who is on an extensive tour of the south, will visit Atlanta February 26, as the guest of R. C. Turner, Atlanta city electrician, and the local electricians' fraternity here.

Mr. Reed will come here from Orlando, Fla., after attending the Florida state electricians' meeting to be held in Tallahassee.

An elaborate program of entertainment has been arranged for him by Mr. Turner.

"A NIGHT IN PARIS" GIVEN BY LEGION AT FT. McPHERSON
Memories of pleasant times spent in Paris were brought back Friday night to ex-servicemen in the American Legion, who formed a capacity audience for presentation at the Fort McPherson theater of "A Night in Paris" by the Atlanta party of the American Legion.

A group of talented and pretty girls formed one of the most popular parts of the entertainment. Those on the program were Howard Bonfield and Margaret Moore in an Apache dance; Sarah Bosworth, in a Salome dance; Anne Faulkner, Leonora Harding, Katherine Kay and Marian Ray in American and musical numbers.

AMERICAN HEIRESS LOSES HER DUKE VIA DIVORCE COURT
Bridgeport, Conn., February 10.—(P)—The Duchess of Torlonia, who was Elsie More, of Greenwich, Conn., was granted a divorce from Duke Marino Torlonia, of Rome, Italy, today.

The decision was given by Judge John Richard Booth of the superior court here. The action was started early in December.

The duchess based her petition on the allegation that the duke had been guilty of misconduct. The answer of the duke was that the courts of this state were without jurisdiction.

RADIO TELEPHONE SERVICE TO BERLIN OPENED BY DAWES
Washington, February 10.—(United News.)—The first wireless telephone conversation between the capital and Berlin took place today.

Messages to the German people were transmitted by Vice President Charles McNary, secretary of the Senate Foreign Relations committee. Dawes said opening of telephone communication to Berlin was a contribution to better understanding between the two peoples and that it is "another step in the furtherance of successful international relations."

WANTED—ONE TENT
Rev. Wallace Needs Canvas Large Enough To Cover 1,000 Persons.

The Rev. Hugh S. Wallace was a hurried visitor to Atlanta Friday. His hurry was the cause of an emergency. And he left the city during the afternoon to a tent which he had sent him when he arrived. All because of a tent!

Mr. Wallace needs a tent badly. He must have a tent to hold 1,000 persons. In fact he is allowing that much latitude, or should we say laxity, because of the imperative need.

The Constitution was called to find no tents for rent, or sale or loan. The only thing that can be done is to ask a private party to loan a tent to Mr. Wallace at Augusta before Saturday night. And he is assured of prompt action by said Mr. Wallace.

EMORY TO STAGE MODEL OF LEAGUE
For the first time in the history of the south and the second time in that of the United States a model assembly of the League of Nations will be given by students. Thursday and Friday afternoons from 3:30 to 5 o'clock, February 16-17, the International Relations club of Emory university will stage a reproduction of the league assembly as held last September in Geneva.

The model assembly will be an exact replica of the league with the opening session on Thursday definitely similar to the opening session of the eighth annual assembly of 1927. The difference in this assembly and the real one will be that this will be confined to two sessions while the other ran over many days.

The model assembly at Emory is being conducted by Dr. Ross H. McLean, professor of history at Emory and former delegate to the conference for the study of international peace. He will be assisted by the members of the International Relations club.

CHATHAM DECISION IN SCHOOL TAX CASE AGAIN SUSTAINED
A revised decision, with slight changes in the language used in phrasing the court's opinion, but with no change in the original judgment, was handed down Friday by the state supreme court in the case of the board of education of Savannah and Chatham county against the Chatham county commissioners.

The high court's original judgment, delivered January 11, sustained Chatham superior court in ordering the commissioners to levy for the year 1927 a five-mile school tax voted in June, 1926, at a county election.

The levy would have been in addition to the maximum school tax levy of five mills permitted to counties by the state constitution, and the point at issue was whether such an additional tax was constitutional.

PROBE ALLEGED HAZING AT V. M. I.; STUDENT INJURED

Richmond, Va., February 10.—(P) Two inquiries, one by Governor Byrd, the other by the board of visitors, will be launched immediately into the alleged hazing of Nicholas Orem, Jr., son of the superintendent of schools of Prince George's county, Maryland, at the Virginia Military Institute last September. Young Orem is said to be suffering from internal injuries declared by his father to have been induced by the alleged hazing.

Governor Byrd today requested an official report on the case from Brigadier General W. H. Cooke, superintendent of V. M. I., and Harris Hart, state superintendent of public schools. A motion of the board of visitors of the institute, whose name was not divulged, told the governor that he would immediately direct the attention of the board to the matter.

FOR CHILDREN PERISH IN FAMING WELLS

Cumberland, Md., February 10.—Four children of ages from 8 years down to 8 months, were burned to death today at Spring Gap, near here, while the mother of one of them left the children alone to visit a neighbor.

The home of Winter Garland, father of the other three, was destroyed by the flames, thought to have started from an overheated stove. Garland's wife is dead and the children were in the care of Mrs. Laura McIntosh, housekeeper for Garland, and mother of the youngest child. From a neighbor's house Mrs. McIntosh discovered the home was ablaze but the fast spreading flames prevented efforts to rescue the children.
